Rain-Encountered St. Lucia Sides Rebury Victims

Mountain-Side Two Miles Long Slips, Covering Two Hamlets and Scores of Inhabitants

CASTRIES, St. Lucia, British West Indies, Nov. 22.—A series of rain-loosened avalanches today spread death and destruction in the interior of this island of the Windward group. A mountainside eight miles long last night buried two hamlets and a number of inhabitants estimated to run into the hundreds.

Rescue workers laboring all night recovered 48 dead and 60 injured, but this morning a new avalanche buried all the dead again in addition to many injured and several rescue workers.

SWEPT INTO RIVER
Shortly after the first avalanche a gang of 50 laborers were swept into a river when the houses in which they were sheltered slipped away along with an acre of land. A few of them were saved. Six of those recovered died during the night.

Continuous rains of the past three days apparently loosened tone of earth which caused the disaster.

1,000 WAT NEWS
More than 1,000 persons waited at Castries last night for news of relatives they feared were lost in the avalanche. The disaster occurred on the main road connecting the city of this island or 238 square miles.

Rescue work was hampered by continuing rains but 300 volunteers armed with shovels were to the scene this morning. Police and medical authorities established temporary morgue at the roadside with bodies awaiting identification.

BRITISH COLONY
St. Lucia, with a population of 60,000, is a British colony ruled principally to sugar and banana.

VIRTUALLY CREMATED
Herald's body was virtually cremated when the crash of his plane, Don Imrie, when the plane burst into flames after it crash shortly after a takeoff a few miles west of Regina.

The train, carrying the young couple's body back to the British Columbia village where he was born, for burial, crashed into a Fraser River canyon rockslide about 4:30 this morning.

LITTLE DAMAGE
The accident caused little damage to the train itself except for the fact that the express car caught fire for a reason, that is, unexplained. Railroaders said they "assumed" a stove in the car lit the jolt that followed the crash.

Railway officials said they expected Herald's body would arrive in Vancouver this afternoon. Burial will be held at 10:30 tomorrow, with a little group of Trans-Canada pilots and other Vancouver staff members in attendance.

SOUTH CHINA
ARMY NEARING CANTON CITY

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.—Chinese reported today the vanguard of General Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist army had advanced to within three miles of Canton, captured by Japanese a month ago. The Chinese have stated frequently during the past week that their forces were making a successful counter-attack in South China but the Japanese have insisted there was no fighting except by guerrilla bands.

Provincial officials also reported successes in central China where they said their armies had halted the Japanese drive on Changsha, Hunan province capital.

Pool Elevators Aid Producers Chairman Says

CALGARY, Nov. 22.—The Wheat Pool and Pool Elevators have been fitted producers, declared Law Hutchinson, chairman of the board of directors, at the annual meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool here today.

Undoubtedly the pools had contributed to the moves which led to the establishment of a Federal Wheat Board.

The Alberta Pool, Mr. Hutchinson told the 70 delegates gathered for the 1937, returned to England for a year and then returned about a year ago and has been here since that time.

Britishes Rejection By Trade Route

Labor Minister Suggests Britain and United States Join in Protest of Jew Maltreatment by Hitlerites

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Philip J. Noel Baker in the House of Commons last night attacked German "persecution" of minorities and suggested Great Britain and United States retaliate. After detailing specific instances of maltreatment of Jews in Germany—including an assertion 70 Jews were killed in a concentration camp—of which he said he had been informed, the Labor minister advocated a three-point plan.

"First," he said, "it must ensure a policy of active self-protection."

"Secondly, we could make it clear in Berlin that there can be no cordial relations between the German government and the British people while the majority of Jews, Socialists, Protestants and Catholics go on."

"Thirdly, we may have to consider if we could not take measures of active self-protection."

Mr. Noel Baker continued Britain might have to join the tide of refugees seeking admission here and he recalled Polish retaliation recently in preventing a mass exodus of Jews from Poland.

Nazi Head Hunters Hold Field Day: 40 Drop into Baskets

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The New York World-Telegram said yesterday that usually reliable sources in Germany report the recent execution of 40 Nazi storm troops and several officers attached to the Reichswehr. The Reichswehr is the official German army and is equipped to another short wave broadcasts from foreign countries by interference, the newspaper said.

The man executed, the World-Telegram said, failed to report the propaganda or take steps to halt it and thus was considered guilty of treason.

Garland Sees Herridge As New Party Head

Another Political Movement Distinct Possibility, C.C.F. Aide Says

CALGARY, Nov. 22.—Formation of another political party in Canada under the leadership of W. D. Herridge, former Canadian minister of agriculture, was being discussed by C.C.F. leaders today.

In an address to the young men's section of the C.C.F. at the Trade last night, Mr. Garland said: "The years since the depression, especially since the depression, have been a series of disturbances in the Canadian political field, the kind of which has been caused by Mr. Herridge. I would not be surprised if another political movement led by Mr. Herridge came into being in this country."

Mr. Garland said Mr. Herridge's warnings of Fascism in Canada are not so far-fetched.

"The initial factors for the definite rooting of a Fascist rule are now being created," declared the C.C.F. organizer.

He urged an "intelligent system" of economic planning as a solution to the economic problems of the day.

"We contemplate no change in the present economic set-up," he said, "but we do contemplate the election of a government committed to a form of planning."

Hull Declares Japanese Reply To U. S. Note Unsatisfactory

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—State Secretary Cordell Hull declared today Japan's reply to his note of October 17 was unsatisfactory.

Hull's note had asserted Japan was violating American rights in China in an attempt to study the substance and implications of the Japanese note.

The secretary of state said the Japanese reply received this week was not responsive to the position of the United States as set forth in his note of Oct. 6, and to the question which the United States has taken through its history with regard to American rights and interests not only in relations with China but also in relations with all countries.

Hull added he preferred not to comment further until the state department should have had more time to study the substance and implications of the Japanese note.

Mr. Bennett looked ahead and heartily and happily.

He has found himself in the optimum position once held by the late Sir Robert Borden.

A great and successful career behind him the struggle and strife of political warfare during the last years of his life, he is now a man of peace and a lovely old English home in his rest and power.

Unlike Sir Robert, he will not spend the evening of his life on the edge of the battlefield, watching others fight the battles he once waged. He will leave within the next month or so for the heart of the Empire, and Mr. Bennett is one of the most ardent worshippers of the Empire.

I dropped in on him Monday in his beloved quarters. He was

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HORSE

FERRY IS PUT BACK AT ROCKY

The ferry on the North Saskatchewan river was taken out ten days ago, owing to ice forming along the banks, and so much silt ice coming down the current channel from the west. But O. P. Thomson, veteran ferryman, put the ferry back in the water Saturday, as the last few days of very mild weather have melted the ice, and the silt ice from the west has ceased to come down the river. The water is still very low, but the ferry manages to get across. Old timers speak of one or two winters when the ferry ran all winter, and predict another season like that.

PROGRAM FOR MORE HOMES AGAIN DEBATED

Civic Committees Named At Special Meeting Of Council

Notice of meeting that power be given by the city council to a limited Edmonton to participate in a housing plan under the National Housing Act, 1935, was given by Ald. J. H. Ogilvie at Monday's special meeting of council.

A similar attempt was made approximately a year ago but the necessary charter amendment was withheld by the provincial government following representation made by a group of taxpayers.

COMMITTEES CHOSEN

Appointments to civic committees and board were made at following: Finance, committee: Aldermen Brown, Casselman, Grant, McDonald, and Parsons; highways committee: Campbell, Knott, McNeil, Ogilvie and Parsons; special report committee: Knott, Grant and Parsons; farm rental settlement board: Campbell, provincial youth rehabilitation board: Casselman.

Request for a bylaw to make the newly-passed 14th avenue a through street for traffic was made by Ald. Hugh John Macdonald. The council also asked that the city solicitor prepare a review of the city's traffic regulations to see where they are out of date and where they are not.

INSURANCE FOR TAXIS

Ald. D. A. Grant gave notice of motion that he would ask council to pass a bylaw requiring all taxis to carry liability insurance. He also asked for a report on medical examination of persons driving taxicabs in restaurants. A bylaw provides for such examination twice a year.

Ald. Sidney B. Parsons announced that at next meeting he would ask for a discussion of the whole question of garbage collection and disposal in the city.

While waiting for the results of a heart test in an Edmonton hospital, A. M. Taraschik died Monday after a heart attack. Deceased came to Edmonton in 1906, but until a business partner, deceased 17 years ago, where he resided up to the time of his death. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Foster and McGarry.

CITY TO ASK GOVERNMENT REDUCE TAX

Removal Or Cut Of $96,000 Levy Wanted By Council

City council on Monday instructed commissioners to petition the provincial government to remove or at least reduce the $96,000 social services tax which the city at present is required to pay the province.

Discussion arose when council received a letter from J. W. Judge, director of assessments for the provincial department of municipal affairs, asking for information on which to base an assessment of Edmonton for the purposes of this tax.

KNOTT URGES MOVE

Ald. D. K. Knott moved that the information be requested, but that commissioners endeavor to have the tax removed or, at least to have the assessment lowered from the present level of $250,000 to $240,000, which is the assessment on which city taxes are levied.

I presume that when the request for information is supplied an attempt will be made to have the assessment lowered to the point which we have operated for several years, Mr. Casselman commented, when the letter was read.

ASSESSED BY PROVINCE

"The province assesses us for tax-fortified lands, which are not on our assessment roll," Ald. J. H. Ogilvie said. "The whole tax is an injustice that is thrust upon us because we haven't the power to resist. We would certainly resist it if we could."

I believe we had something of a promise last year that the assessment would be lowered," Ald. Knott added. "The commissioners might remind the provincial officials of that."

40-HOUR WEEK IS SOUGHT BY LABOR COUNCIL

Group Also Asks Minimum Wage Of 50 Cents Instead Of 33 1/3 Cents

A forty-hour week for all workers without reduction of wages and an amendment to the Minimum Wage act to provide for a minimum wage of 50 cents instead of 33 1/3 cents, the prevailing minimum, will be sought by the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council, it was decided at the council's bi-monthly meeting on Monday evening.

Resolutions asking for the reduction of hours of work and increase in the minimum wage will be forwarded to the Alberta Federation of Labor convention, to be held at Calgary late this month. The latter body will submit the resolutions to the provincial authorities.

PENSIONS

It was also decided to ask for an amendment to the Old Age Pension act to provide for the granting of pensions to all persons over 60 years and to provide for property exemptions up to $2,000.

The council will also ask the provincial government to pass legislation to extend the right to the Dominion government to pass employment insurance legislation. This would give the provincial government to pass health insurance legislation.

RESOLVING FUND

Ald. Sidney Parsons sponsored a resolution calling for the setting up of a "Resolving Fund" of $10,000, to be used for the purpose of helping out of which loans would be made to provincial and municipal governments for public works. This resolution was forwarded to the Alberta Federation of Labor and to the provincial government.

On the motion of W. "Paddy" Griffin, instructions were issued by the council to the secretary, Ald. Parsons, to interview the city commissioners in an effort to have a plan placed in the city council's hands for the purpose of the fair wage clause in city contracts. The resolution asks that one found paying less than the fair wage, no further legal action should be given the offender.

ST. ALBERT WAS RELIGIOUS HUB OF OLD WEST

Founded in 1801 by Father LaCombe, the church at St. Albert is the oldest in the province. Brother Joseph's college, said Monday night in addressing the Alberta "Religious Hub" of Old West.

The wooden bridge at St. Albert was built the following year, and was the first one west of the Great Lakes.

The missionary work conducted by Brother Joseph, the first priest of St. Albert, not only made the place a religious center, but it was a but give credit wherever spiritual progress was advanced, Brother Joseph said.

Recalling many incidents in the history of the church, and describing the beauty of its museum, Brother Joseph said that the set of candlesticks at St. Albert had been donated by Napoleon III.

Edmonton Woman Is Discharged On Theft Count

Rose Davidson, Edmonton, was found not guilty by Mr. Justice W. C. Irvine in supreme court Monday on a charge of stealing $100 from a store on October 17 last.

Evidence against the accused was that she went to the company's room in a local hotel and after several days of hiding there, she was found with the $100 in her possession. The accused denied she had taken any of the money although admitting she had gone to her hotel room.

Hugh C. MacDonald, K.C., counsel for the accused, submitted that there was no evidence against the accused on which a conviction could be sustained. This view was concurred in by Mr. Justice Irvine who ordered her discharged.

The Southern Alberta Pioneers and Old Timers Association will and representatives will many other organizations will be present.

The Inquiring Reporter

With the cold winter mornings coming up, The Bulletin's Inquiring Reporter felt to thinking of the children trudging off to school facing the bitter cold. Some of them have several blankets to walk, and wondering how they could get to school without getting cold.

What do you think of shifting the opening of schools to 8:30 a.m.? Here are their reasons:

MRS. F. J. FITZGERALD, housewife: The idea sounds fine, for I have often felt sorry watching the children start for school so early in the cold winter months. Certainly nothing would be lost by a change such as you suggest, and it might make a big difference to the younger children.

RUTH JOHNSTONE, secretary: Until nine o'clock is plenty long for the children to get to school. I have often seen children under their feet on a busy morning, especially if they get up at an early hour.

KEN BETHUNE, doctor writer: What difference would a half-hour make? I don't see that the weather would be appreciably warmer at 8:30 a.m. I don't see much point in the suggestion either. Why not make it compulsory for everyone to stay in bed?

Apple Nellie, Renowned Gold-Digger In Tryst With Coast Boy Friend

There's one old lady in Edmonton who may be doing up a little, growing a little heavier, and showing those little signs that indicate old is just around the corner, but she still has that certain something that brings her friends round and keeps them from forgetting her, even if they're far away.

She's Apple Nellie, the apple of Ald. Pickering's eye, and a gold digger from away back. But she's not what it takes, and the boys all like it.

At Pickering, if you must know, has been Apple Nellie steady for 11 1/2 years now. But that doesn't stop the fighty Nellie from having had a hundred or more friends on the side in fact, it's because of these extra friends that Nellie's putting on weight. They all figure the war is Nellie's heart is through her stomach, and boy, oh boy, what a bunch of palindromes they are.

HOW COMES

Incidentally these boys Apple Nellie get her name, through her friends, to attend the city of it's wangle them out of the doing boy friends. And to prove that the boys are not taking her for granted, she's been taking a load of the letter that Archie McDonald wrote to her from Vancouver the other day and handed over to Ald. Pickering. Nellie returned to him on a visit at Manhattan apartment, Vancouver.

"Dear Sir: I am enclosing a small donation to purchase apples for the Nellie Club. I have been thinking of you for three years ago, but for several years before I left I left her apples. I returned to Edmonton on a visit two weeks ago after an absence of three years. I am sure that you recognized me as she placed her head on my shoulder just exactly as she did three years ago."

"I have traveled a good deal but have never met a horse to compare with Nellie. The Percheron is recognized as the most common breed of all horses, but Apple Nellie stands out among them all. She is a wonderful animal and a horse Edmund should be truly proud of."

"I am enclosing $1 for a few Christmas apples for my old friend Nellie, and good luck to her driver. Yours truly, A. D. E. CONROY."

So if you are Apple Nellie please do in an extra prize or two these days, and note that Ald. Pickering's cap is set at just a little jauntier in the round-up. You get along. They're just serving notice to the world that Nellie, despite her 15 months of age and her 11 1/2 years with Art on a heavy breed horse, still has what it takes to keep the boy friends coming along.

$115 OBTAINED IN BURGLARIES MONDAY NIGHT

Thieves Loot Public Library and Sub-Post Office Here

Burglars netted themselves about $115 in two break-ins in the city Monday night, police reported Tuesday morning. North side public library vault yielded about $95 and a sub-post office in Mrs. Emily Ryan's store at 118 1/2 avenue, yielded another $20.

Police believe that the person responsible for the occurrence at the public library must have hidden among the rows of books and been locked in, because there was no sign of forcible entry.

VAULT OPEN

Crime was discovered shortly after 3 a.m. when George Heald, clerk, janitor, came on duty. He found the door to the vault slightly open, drawers pulled out, and their contents scattered. A small detainer the main office was untouched.

Constable Alex Keating and Detective Mardo Mardo were called to the scene. They could not find signs of forcible entry, they said. All doors and windows were locked. The thieves had been in the vault, they believed, because it showed no signs of being tampered with. THE BURGLAR

The burglar who broke into Mrs. Ryan's store removed a alarm clock and left a note on the door. He had a padlock off the door which led to the room which served as a post office and stole about $20 in cash, morning stamps and money orders, police said. Constable Harry Nelson investigated.

COMUTING

A commuter is someone who buys

fresh air with a train ride.

In some ways he is not normal.

For instance, instead of hurrying for a run, he is always running for a train.

Sometimes wives drive their husbands to the station in an automobile.

This is very hard on the wives, who have to untie before they can get back into bed again.

The faster the train, the heavier is the conductor's watch-chain.

When you are late, it is usually quite hard to see the conductor's watch-chain.

Just try to converse with a commuter on the street after five o'clock.

What To Do

By Phyllis Belmont

How can I arrange an attractive centerpiece for my dinner table with fruits and flowers? I have a long table and will have twelve guests. Can you also suggest appropriate place cards—noting elaborate—MR. G. C. C.

Answer—For a long table, seating twelve, lay a panel of white cloths in the center of the table over a white tablecloth. In the very center use a tray or a low firing bowl for the foundation, and arrange a colorful and beautiful arrangement of apples, oranges, grapes, bunches of raisins, persimmons, nuts, cranberries, etc. Tuck in a few bronzes chrysantheums among the fruit. Under the cloths slip artificial autumn leaves, pretty side up, to form an artistic, but not too precise border. Then insert six shiny and apples into cardinals, insert creamy white or yellow candles and place three at each end of the fruit tray. For place cards, cut leaf shapes from watercolor paper, write the name, then color the leaves lightly in autumn colors, said was crayons or watercolor paint.

DOES A FISH GROW LARGER CALLED OR MORE OF THEM AS IT INCREASES IN SIZE?

Answer: Larger scales. No matter how large a fish grows, it never adds additional scales. Those which covered it in the beginning continue to grow just fast enough to keep it covered through life.
